

Watamu Sea Turtle Volunteer Project, Kenya

Volunteers can join this programme and take part in marine and turtle conservation work involving research and monitoring of nesting turtles, education and outreach.

The Watamu Marine Park is part of a United Nations Biosphere Reserve and has been designated as a place of great natural beauty with miles of beautiful beaches and corals rich in marine flora and fauna.

Volunteers can take part in a variety of different sea turtle conservation related projects, as listed below:

- Conservation and research
- Education and awareness
- Community development

Dates

Volunteers can join from 2 weeks minimum up to 8 weeks maximum.

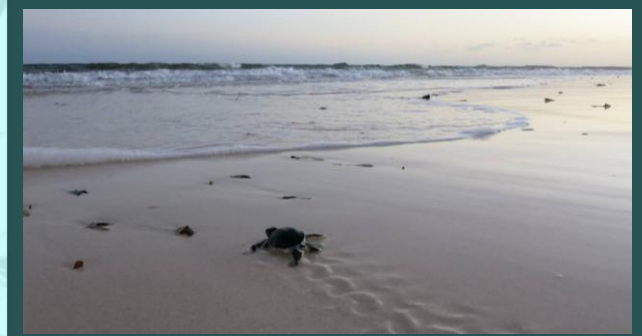

Requirements

You should be 18 years old and over, fit, healthy and capable of carrying out manual work in all conditions in a hot climate. No specific skills are needed.

Costs

The cost for 2 weeks is £580, 3 weeks is £800, 4 weeks is £1010, 5 weeks is £1210, 6 weeks is £1410, 8 weeks is £1810, and for 10 weeks is £2210, which covers all project costs, including one day time meal at lunchtime on weekdays, quality accommodation, airport transfers from Malindi, all training and supervision, WorkingAbroad Projects backup and placement support. Cleaning is also included in the price and laundry can be done at minimal extra cost paid in local currency.

The airfare to Malindi (local airport), travel/ medical insurance and personal expenses are not included within this price. It is mandatory for you to take out travel and medical insurance.

Application information:

For more details and how to apply, visit

<http://www.workingabroad.com/projects/kenya-sea-turtle-volunteer> or contact WorkingAbroad by email or telephone

info@workingabroad.com

+ 44 1273 479 047